

PROCLAMATION
THE JEWISH CENTER OF PRINCETON

Whereas, Joan Levin and Linda Weber led an extraordinary community-building effort with an unprecedented number of congregants in the history of The Jewish Center; and

Whereas, their process for welcoming Rabbi Adam Feldman to The Jewish Center serves as a model of inclusiveness that was further recognized by the winning of a gold Solomon Schecter Award by the United Synagogue of Conservative Judaism; and

Whereas, Joan and Linda set twin records in both the total pleasantries exchanged and calories consumed at the Twenty-nine "Meet and Greets":

Now therefore, I, Michael Feldstein, President of The Jewish Center of Princeton, do hereby proclaim and declare the gratitude and mazal tov of our entire congregation.

And I do further proclaim, that the 19th day of Kislev 5768 equating to the 29th of November 2007, coinciding with opening day of United Synagogue's International Biennial Convention at which the Solomon Schecter award will be granted for this achievement shall be known as Joan Levin and Linda Weber day at The Jewish Center of Princeton.

In testimony whereof, I have herewith set my hand and caused the seal of The Jewish Center of Princeton to be affixed.

Done at the town of Princeton, this 14th day of Av, 5767; this 29th day of July 2007; the sixty-first year of The Jewish Center of Princeton.

Michael Feldstein
